Part 4: Tell us more about yourself.

The Educational Opportunity Award was developed to financially assist a woman in San Juan County to achieve her educational and career goals. Applicants for this award must be enrolled in, or accepted into, an accredited undergraduate degree or vocational skills training program, including on-line study programs. Consideration for this award will be given in part based upon financial need, as well as upon the applicant's overall life situation. When determining who will receive this award, we will take into account things such as your goals and how you are working toward achieving them, your commitment to your education, your past challenges and successes, and anything else you feel is important for us to be aware of.

In this section, you have the opportunity to tell us more about yourself. In 750 words or less, please let us know how this award would benefit you, and why you feel you are a good applicant for it. Feel free to include any information about yourself that you think is pertinent for us to know.

Please use a separate sheet of paper as necessary to submit your answer or proceed to final page 5.
